"EXHIBIT A"

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION,

Plaintiff,

v.

JEREMY KOSKI,

Defendant, Pro Se

Case No. 23-cv-7779

I, Jeremy Koski, appearing pro se, hereby respectfully inform this Honorable Court of my severe psychiatric and mental health conditions. I suffer from Bipolar I Disorder, PTSD, Personality Disorder, Mood Disorder and other psychological disorders. I am also on Social Security Disability who have extensively reviewed my medical records and confirmed these disorders. These conditions significantly impair my ability to form intent or act with scienter. My medical history regarding mental health disorders spans over a decade and provides extensive documentation of these persistent and debilitating mental health issues that should be considered in this case. The allegations brought forth by the Plaintiff Securities and Exchange Commission necessitate proof that I acted with scienter or intent to deceive under Section 17(a) of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

The Plaintiff Securities and Exchange Commission ("Commission") alleges that I engaged in fraudulent schemes involving false statements about securities redemption and conversion into cryptocurrency. The allegations necessitate proof that I acted with scienter or intent to deceive under Section 17(a) of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

As I have an extensive and well-documented mental health history and its potential relevance to allegations requiring proof of scienter, I believe it could be beneficial for me to undergo a clinical psychological evaluation. Should the Plaintiff or Court determine there is good cause for such an assessment under Rule 35(a), I am willing to participate with respect to assessing my capacity during the period of alleged violations before proceeding further.
